

NOW AVAILABLE

Breaking SILENCES & Exploring MASCULINITIES:

a critical supplement to the novel Jackytar

This book aims to promote discussion about changing understandings of masculinities, especially regarding identities, communities, familial relationships, the raising of boys, the multiple meanings of manhood, difference, men's careers, communication, and more. This collection of critical essays on Jackytar, an acclaimed educational novel by Dr. Douglas Gosse, offers a much needed academic resource by and for scholars in disciplines ranging from sociology, social work, psychology and education to language, linguistics and philosophy.

Specifications: 5.25 x 8.25 / 72 pages / $14.95 ISBN 978-1-55081-246-6

Dr. Douglas Gosse teaches Curriculum Methods in the pre-service teacher education program at Nipissing University, North Bay, ON, and is a member of the School of Graduate Studies. His research interests include masculinities, queer theory, and arts-based educational research, especially fiction writing, the Bildungsroman, and the creative research process of writer-researchers. His web page is:

<http://www.nipissingu.ca/faculty/douglasg/index.htm>
He may be contacted via email: douglasg@nipissingu.ca

To order, please contact Breakwater:

BREAKWATER BOOKS LTD.
JESPERSON PUBLISHING • BREAKWATER DISTRIBUTORS

100 Water Street • P.O. Box 2188 • St. John's • NL • A1C 6E6
(P) 800.563.3333 • 709.722.6680 (F) 709.753.0708
www.breakwaterbooks.com www.jespersionpublishing.ca